To: All family members of a current St. Martin's Resident and to our friends,

There are no COVID cases this week and for that we are most grateful to God, St. Jeanne Jugan, and to our good St. Joseph for watching over us.

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving and we know you will be gathering with your loved ones. Please remember to be vigilant when visiting and entertaining so that we do not encounter a wave of influenza or COVID cases afterwards. If you have not gotten your flu shot and/or your bivalent COVID booster, please do so for your own protection and for the protection of those you hold dear.

The Little Sisters join me in wishing you a very Happy Thanksgiving filled with lots of love, laughter and blessings.

Most sincerely,

Sister Jeanne Mary, l.s.p.
Mother Superior
