To: All family members of a current St. Martin's Resident and to our friends,

Today we continue to thank God, St. Jeanne Jugan, and our good St. Joseph for another week of being COVID free. And as I mentioned last week, we hope this is a sign that COVID is losing its strength.

We had some lovely warm days recently and some of our beloved Residents were happy to walk outside and bask in the beautiful sun God provided. How nice it would be for them if you were to find time in your busy schedules to enjoy the simple gift of sunshine with them.

As spring approaches, and with it the promise of Easter, we wish all of you a holy and healthy Lenten season.

Most sincerely,

Sister Jeanne Mary, l.s.p.
